

Dancing through Decades

August 4, 2008

60 YEARS OF SERVICE IS SOMETHING TO DANCE ABOUT!
PRESS RELEASE FOR: AccessAbility, Inc. Dancing through Decades

Dancing through Decades, a benefit for AccessAbility, Inc. will be held Sunday, September 28, 2008 at the Metropolitan Ballroom in Golden Valley from 5:30-9:30 pm.

AccessAbility, Inc is celebrating 60 years of support to the Twin Cities. It is a non-profit organization that provides immediate jobs and training for people that want to work, but due to serious personal challenges, need more support to be successful. AccessAbility was named 2007 Employer of the Year — Small Employer by the Minnesota State Council on Disability (MSCOD). “It is nice to be recognized by our community, especially by such a great organization as MSCOD,” says Barbara Arnold, AccessAbility’s President. “But the real accomplishments are the demonstrated achievements in the world of work by one of MN’s most untapped workforce, individuals living with a disability.”

Tami Krause, Head Coach of the Minnesota Vikings Cheerleaders and Dancing through Decades event emcee stated “I’m honored to be involved in this event and very impressed with the work AccessAbility, Inc. has done over the last 60 years.” Tami invites businesses and individuals to get acquainted with AccessAbility, Inc. and participate in this unique event. As a performer, instructor, and dance coach, Tami has over 30 years of experience planning, implementing and evaluating dance events. Tami also invited the Vikings cheerleaders to perform a special dance routine at the event. The co-emcee for the event is “The Rookie” from am 1500 KSTP’s popular Garage Logic radio show.

For event and ticket information, please contact Joan Marso at 612-331-5958 or log on to www.accessability.org.

For interviews or more information about AccessAbility’s role in the community, please contact Lisa Lundmark at 612-331-5958.

